

BARCELONA

Spain

Barcelona is the modern, thriving capital of Cataluña, rich in cultural heritage, lying on the warm shores of the Mediterranean. This is a city of elegant boulevards, stylish 'modernist' architecture and breathtaking views. Here, you can join the strolling crowds that amble along 'Las Ramblas', explore the narrow cobbled streets of the Gothic Quarter, or walk to the top of 'El Tibidabo' and enjoy the night-time panorama of this beautiful city. With its numerous restaurants, museums, monuments, theatres, parks, shops and beaches, Barcelona is a city for all tastes and for all seasons.

Our school is located in the heart of Barcelona, within walking distance of Plaza Cataluña and the 'Gothic Quarter'. The school is fully air-conditioned and superbly equipped, with 40 classrooms, Internet café, student cafeteria and large sun terraces for students to use at break time or after classes. In addition to their courses, most students can also attend free 'cultural lessons' each afternoon/evening in the school. An extensive range of optional activities, visits and weekend excursions are also available.
