GRANADA

Spain

Granada is undoubtedly one of the most beautiful and atmospheric cities in Spain. The magnificent palaces and gardens of 'The Alhambra' are breathtaking, as are the views from the old Moorish part of the city, 'El Albaicin' with its winding streets, white-washed walls and Arab-style tea shops. Nestling below the snow-capped peaks of the Sierra Nevada - the highest mountains in mainland Spain - yet at the same time a little over an hour's drive from the warm beaches of the Mediterranean, Granada has a unique location, and offers the visitor a wonderful mixture of old and new, East and West, mountain and beach.

View from a classroom (Option 1)

Our main school (Option 1) is located in the heart of the 'Albaicin', the oldest and most beautiful part of the city. There are 8 classrooms, student cafeteria and a magnificent garden with orange trees. Views from the school look directly at the 'Alhambra', over the Albaicin. There is a maximum of just 6 students per class. Our second school (Option 2) is located within easy walking distance of the centre of Granada. It has 19 air-conditioned classrooms, Internet café and large patio. All accommodation is within walking distance of both schools.
