St Petersburg and Moscow

St. Petersburg

Red Square - Moscow

With its elegant buildings, art, culture, canals, countless palaces and museums, St Petersburg is truly one of the most beautiful cities in Europe. With a population of 10 million, Moscow is the political and economic centre of Russia. As one of the largest and most vibrant cities in Europe, Moscow also has a rich and fascinating history. Moscow and St Petersburg are the perfect combination, representing the best of modern Russia with centuries of history and culture. Russian is still one of the 6 official languages of the United Nations, is widely spoken in Eastern Europe, as well as being the 'lingua franca' of all the former Soviet Union. Russian is also an important 'world language' and studying it in such atmospheric and historical cities as St Petersburg or Moscow offers students the opportunity to experience the Russia of today, as well as gain an insight into the history and culture of this great nation.
