TROPEA

Italy

Tropea, known to Italians as the Pearl of Calabria, is a picturesque medieval town (pop. 7,000), perched on a rocky outcrop, overlooking the crystal-clear waters of the Mediterranean. The town is unspoilt by tourism and surrounded by magnificent landscapes of winding country roads and breathhtaking views. There are numerous quiet sandy bays nearby, as well as quaint villages nestling in olive groves, old churches and castles, just waiting to be discovered.

Our school is located in the centre of the town, just 10 minutes walk from the beach.
